And we sincerely ask that in return the reward to each of you shall be Gods richest and Heavenly blessings. We remain, dear sir, Very sincerely yours in loving remembrance, Charles H. Graham, Philip Fluchard, County Hospital, Lancaster, Pa. Pensauken, N. J. , January 11, 1905. Dear Dr. Moon: --Per request of Mr. John Clift, my uncle, 621 N. Franklin, Philadelphia, I write the following, as per his dictation: --Since my sixty-third year, now three years past, I have been totally blind. Kind friends suggested that I learn to read by the raised alphabet. Dr. Moon promptly sent Mr. Moore, a most patient teacher, to instruct and assist me in the system, and I am overjoyed in being able to say that I can now read the finest print with but little trouble. Before this great help was brought to my attention, I was fearfully troubled with insomnia. Now, however, I have restful and peaceful slumbers. I have every reason to be most grateful for such a companion to assist in profitably spending my declining years. The best authors are now open to me. Science, religion, etc. , are truly at my fingers ends. Possibly none but the blind truly realize the awful reality of not being able longer to recognize the faces...
