By Lige E Jeter

Lige Jeter, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bread of Tears The title is selected from the Eightieth Psalm verse Five, describing God s apportion of punishment for the children of Israel s disobedience saying: You have fed them with bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in great measure. In simple terms, there was no rest, no comfort, only loneliness and misery during their Babylonian captivity. Each time the children of Israel became disobedient to God s word, they suffered the consequences for their actions. Disobedience always brings about divine impartial punishment. Part I and II of this book undeniably rediscover this truth of accountability. Part I: Holiness A Way of Life Holiness establishes a solid biblical concept that had its beginning in the Old Testament and continues to be a vital part of the teachings found in the New Testament. It is without doubt God s Standard for absolute Living. Holiness describes a way of life for the church each accountable to the greater assembly. Personal holiness is the most difficult taught because of its peculiarity or characteristics relating to...
