

Supporting Families of Children With Developmental Disabilities: Evidence-based and Emerging Practices

By Mian Wang and George H. S. Singer

Oxford University Press, 2016. Softcover. Book Condition: New. This volume is the only comprehensive review of family support literature. . It is the only meta-analysis of RCT studies in this literature. . Uses evaluation of intervention status as evidence based practice. . Includes convenient tables summarizing studies. . Contains description of major contents of intervention programs. . Incorporates a strong emphasis on family adaptation and quality of life. Supporting Families of Children with Developmental Disabilities provides a comprehensive review of the empirical evidence on interventions for families of individuals, ranging from post-preschool age to adulthood, with developmental disabilities. The book presents both narrative and meta-analytic syntheses of a large body of research to evaluate which interventions meet contemporary standards as evidence based practices. The body of studies reviewed in the book has not previously been gathered into one volume, nor evaluated as a whole for the quality and extent of the evidence. The research is presented in the context of contemporary social policy and practices aimed at maximizing the development of children with disabilities while increasing the quality of life of their families. The criteria and procedures followed for identifying, reviewing, evaluating, and categorizing the studies are articulated in line...
