A RENASCENCE OF HEART AND SOUL (PAPERBACK)

iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Originality in Spiritual Revival-Manna for the intellectually hungry. Entice your senses, quench a thirsty soul, witness a noble rebellion, feel the gentle ache of solitude and surrender to truth! -Wendy Acho, Vice President LaSalle Bank Corporation and Co-Collaborator, AMEAC. From the majestic mountains of Lebanon, Grace's voice echoes in the valley below. She takes us on a journey where love, pain, suffering, hope-all human feelings are revealed in beautiful lines of insightful poetry. All is experienced under the Grace of God. -Karim El-Koussa, Author and 2001 Winner of the Saeed Akl Prize for Literature. As a passionate and pensive child, Grace Halabi, spent her childhood years relishing the majestic mountains and the beguiling ocean of her native Beirut. Her love for poetry is akin to that of her father, a linguist specialist for the deaf and mute and an English professor, and that passion is manifested in her collection of eloquent poetry and prose. A Renaissance of Heart and Soul, profoundly moving with its emotional immediacy, highlights the vitality of her intelligence and the yearnings of her imagination. A Shakespeare, Milton, and Khalil Gibran partisan, her writings reveal a likeness to their wings.
