

Granny (Paperback)

By Brendan O Carroll

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The New York Times Book Review praised Brendan O Carroll s first novel, The Mammy, as Cheerful.as unpretentious and satisfying as a home-cooked meal.with a delicious dessert of an ending. With the forthcoming second book in the trilogy, The Chisellers, and a movie about The Mammy (entitled Agnes Browne) on the horizon, the world is discovering O Carroll s uniquely Irish blend of warmth and grittiness, comedy and pathos, as he elevates the lives of ordinary working-class Dublin people--and one extraordinary family--into tales that are small in size but epic in emotion. With the final installment, The Granny, our comedic and lovable heroine, Agnes Browne, has a French lover, six children in their twenties--including one in prison--and a wee grandchild of her own. But the world is spinning fast for Agnes--especially considering that her lover wants her to become a sexual animal and that her family s far-flung fortune is beyond her control. The members of the Browne family split up to make it in the world on their own until a tragedy brings the brood back together again--and love keeps them that way forever.
